The suicide of Miss Katherine Brad-ley, employed at the City hotel, which occurred about 7.30 Wednesday morn-ing, was a shock to her many friends. ing, was a shock to her many friends. She seemed to be in good spirits for several days and arose and went about her duties as usual Wednesday morning, although she appeared somewhat gloomy. Mrs. Eliza Keefe, the proprietress of the hotel, inquired if she was feeling well, and the girl said she was all right. Shortly after 7 o'clock Mrs. Keefe suggested having breakfast, as it was their custom to have break-fast together. The girl said, "I have to go upstairs first," Mrs. Keefe ate said estate, fully described in said application.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. time. George Wood, who works in a meat market down stairs, was summoned and removed the girl from the tub and took her to her room. She was alive and apparently conscious and her throat and tongue were terribly burned. Mr. Wood asked her what she had taken, but she was unable to tell him. She uttered a few indistinct words, and all Mr. Wood could understand was "Too bad." "Sorry." She lived about 20 minutes. A bottle of corrisive sublimate was found near her bed, and it is thought that after takcorrisive sublimate was found near her bed, and it is thought that after taking a portion of the contents it burned so she went to the bathiub and put her face under the faucet to relieve the burning sensation. Medical Examiner Dr. C. B. Newton and Dr. Bard were called, but nothing could be done to save her. The medical examiner's report was suicide, caused by temporary insanity. Disappointment in love is the only possible motive which has been given for the rash act. The young woman had been receiving attentions from a man from Rockville. He was with the Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings, and perhaps Tuesday evening and it is thought that at the last meeting there was a disagreement.

The deceased was 22 years old, and besides her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley, is survived by four brothers and two sisters,

HOME THOUGHTS FROM EUROPE. O. it's home again, and home again.

America for me!

My heart is turning home again to God's countrie.

To the land of youth and freedom, beyond the ocean bars, where the air is full of sunshine and the flag in full of stars.

It is good to see the old world, and travel up and down Among the fameus countries and the cities of renown.

To admire the crumbly castles, and the monuments and kings:
But soon or late you have enough of antiquated things.

So it's home again, and home again, etc.

O. London is a man's town, there's power in the air;
And Paris is a woman's town, with flowers in her bair;
And it's sweet to loaf in Venice, and it's great to study Rome;
But when it comes to living, there is no place like home.

So it's home again, and home again, etc.

I like the German fir-woods, in green battalions drilled;
I like the gardens of Versailles, with finshing fountains filled;
But, O. to take your hand, my dear, and ramble for a day
In the friendly western woodland where nature has her way!
So it's home again, and home again, etc.

O. Europe is a fine place, yet something seems to lack.
The past is too much with her, and the people looking back;
But life is in the present, and the future must be free;
We love our land for what she is, and what she is to be.

So it's home again, and home again,
America for me!

My heart is turning home again to God's countrie.

To the blessed land of Room Enough beyond the ocean bars.

Where the air is full of sunshine and the flag is full of sunshine and
